

ABOUT THE AUTHOR, SALLY BETTERS

Sally Better is an entrepreneur at heart with diverse experience in small business ownership and community involvement. She has owned and operated a professional tutorial services business, More than Words, for over fifteen years. She is passionate about her work with individuals who struggle with learning differences. Witnessing both incremental and drastic improvement in her students' self-esteem and academic growth is rewarding and fulling. Additionally, she has coached women, both young and old, in various levels of emotional, mental and spiritual development on the topics contained within this book. Others are attracted to her leadership in group environments because of her deep compassion and knowledge base and willingness to work with diverse groups.

As a Certified Professional Tutor specializing in children and adults with Dyslexia, Dysgraphia and Attention Deficit Disorder. Sally Better speaks to parent groups educating them on research-based systems. She has significantly impacted numerous students and their families with her expertise.

As an advocate on the effects of post abortion on women, Sally Better has been invited to speak to churches, pastors and community groups. She has been on volunteer, case manager and staff member with the Post Abortion Counseling Program for the Santa Clarita Valley Pregnancy Center. In addition, she has served as a founding Board Member of the Vine Pregnancy Center in her local mountain community.

Sally Better currently resides in Southern California with her husband, who is her soul mate. Together they have four adult children and four beautiful granddaughters..
